

Charles Ihe

Flight Lieutenant
Royal Air Force

INDUSTRY:

ARMED SERVICES

What is the best part of your job?

Leading a team and hosting passengers at our airport daily.

Biggest learning moment of your career?

Everyday! Things always happen at a moment's notice so that keeps me on my toes.

What does Black history month mean to you?

A time to reflect over the contributions made by black people to society.

I am currently the co-Chairman of the RAF's BHM commemorations. It is an opportunity to bring the brightest minds together to plan a great future for young people.

Why is being a positive role model important to you?

I have an opportunity to lead, work and build teams. It is important to pass these skills to young people.

What is your top tip to success?

Initiative! Don't be afraid to solve problems around you.

What is your greatest achievement?

Life! Doing well in school has made life easier now.

What advice would you give to your 16year-old Self?

Remain focused. Keep thinking about others before yourself and Smile!

What are you reading?

Encyclopaedia of the World

Favourite food to boost your mood?

Ice Cream

Biggest change since lockdown?

Not shaking hands!

Ideal Mentor?

Sir Trevor McDonald

Role Model growing up?

My Parents