What is the best part of your job?

Variety. I like the fact that my time is split evenly between the office and site, plus I get to interact with a wide range of people on a daily basis.

Biggest learning moment of your career?

The decision to go back to part-time study in order to facilitate a change of direction from housing management to surveying.

What does Black history month mean to you?

An opportunity to celebrate the successes and achievements of many individuals, who would not otherwise be recognized for their valuable contribution.

What advice would you give to your 16year-old Self?

Be bolder in your decisions and more open in your thinking.

Why is being a positive role model important to you?

I would have benefited from having one during my former years, when I was personally struggling with finding direction and a clear identity.

What is your top tip to success?

Surround yourself with the best people in terms of support and advice, prepare yourself in terms of planning and targets, remain organized and focused on your goals.

What is your greatest achievement?

Fatherhood. My two girls are my everything.
