

Ovo Gharoro

Head of Investment Data Strategy
M&G Plc

INDUSTRY:

FINANCIAL SERVICES

What is the best part of your job?

Being free to find and solve some of the most important problems for the organisation. Working with people with different perspectives from myself, allowing us to come up with best solutions.

Biggest learning moment of your career?

So many...the logical response to an answer is not always the right one. People need you to connect emotionally and not just be right.

What does Black history month mean to you?

Black History Month is about representation. Telling the fair and balanced history of black people in Britain, so that many of us can see that we matter.

What advice would you give to your 16year-old Self?

Lots of people will tell you that you are wrong, you don't have to listen or respond to them.

Why is being a positive role model important to you?

It's about opening doors so that those that come after you, don't have to work as hard. It's also about showing people that those doors can be opened.

What is your top tip to success?

Find what makes you unique and cultivate that. Keep learning your craft and learn from everyone.

What is your greatest achievement?

Successfully pitching a career development programme for Black & Minorities to be seconded into Investment & Sales roles with senior mentors to guide them. This was approved by two board members and could significantly change the face of the company.

What are you reading?

Hans Rosling

Favourite food to boost your mood?

Whiskey cured salmon

Biggest change since lockdown?
Being mindful who I spend my time with.

Ideal Mentor?
Barack Obama

Role Model growing up?
Steve Jobs

