

Rhoderline Kyeme

Management Consultant
UN Agency

INDUSTRY: NGO SECTOR

What is the best part of your job?

Working with people across the globe and learning something new every day.

Biggest learning moment of your career?

Realising that the best often comes out of us during the most challenging & toughest experiences.

What does Black history month mean to you?

An opportunity to shine a light on the diversity of people within our diaspora and give the next generation hope that they too can leave a legacy, the sky is the limit!

Why is being a positive role model important to you?

I am who I am because of the positive and influential role models I had in my life, and so it seems natural to do the same for others.

What is your top tip to success?

Be authentic. Stay true to yourself and keep your integrity. Respect everyone and treat others as you would like to be treated, this includes your peers, your bosses and those who may report into you.

What is your greatest achievement?

Obtaining the work-life balance I always wanted and at a young enough age to enjoy it.

What advice would you give to your 16year-old Self?

Don't doubt your abilities and what you are capable of, believe in yourself and keep your eye on the prize.

What are you reading?

Michelle Obama

BECOMING

Favourite food to boost your mood?

Nuts

Biggest change since lockdown?

Daily 5k walks and making my own barista style coffees!

Ideal Mentor?

Mother Teresa

Role Model growing up?

Too many people to mention (mainly teachers & my parents)