What is the best part of your job?

That the next challenge is always around the corner. My job is also highly visible...which can be a good thing and a bad thing!

Biggest learning moment of your career?

2019 was a huge learning year for me running a large regional project implementing a number of new initiatives to conform with EU regulation. A lot of project planning was required and a lot of power meetings took place. Needless to say, stress levels were high, but it was so fulfilling to get to the end and achieve well!

What does Black history month mean to you?

It is a time for reflection and learning. Every single person must use this time to read and learn (actually this should be happening all year round...not just in October!)

Why is being a positive role model important to you?

It is important to know that young people look up to me and that I am setting a good example to the younger generation

What is your top tip to success?

Mentoring from experienced, successful people is key. Also, try and surround yourself with driven ambitious people...it will eventually rub off!

What is your greatest achievement?

Being a fulltime working mum is a daily achievement for me.

What advice would you give to your 16year-old Self?

If you believe in you, then everyone else will.

What are you listening to?

Favourite food to boost your mood?

Cake/Donuts/Chocolate

Biggest change since lockdown?

More quality time with family

Ideal Mentor?
Michelle Obama

Role Model growing up?
I can't name one, but black girls/women in the media at the time
